A Bit of Optimism

Scores of folks have been "keeping on the sunny side" this week and every one of them feel better for it. Cheer gathers cheer as it goes along so we've tried to pass out some with each purchase that went over our counters since Monday.

With the same optimistic view in mind, we ordered our fresh supply of Meats and Green Stuff for Friday and Saturday. We specified that it should be all of first class quality and so we will be prepared to offer the best of Beef, Lamb, Veal and Pork. Besides Native Chickens, Lettuce, Radishes and other vegetables at low prices. We'd be glad to have you come in and get your supplies, or easier, phone 15-11 and receive them promptly at your home.

The Montpelier seminary girls basketball team will play the spaulding high school girls in the Church street gymnasium, Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

J. A. Denno's new blacksmith shop on Depot square seems to be appreciated by the people, as he has all he can do. He says he will add another first class horse shop in a short time.

The address given by Hon. Frank Plimley is one of high character. If you have never had an opportunity of listening to this gentleman, the time has presented itself for Sunday evening at 7:30 at the Barre opera house.

The whist party, held last evening by the L. O. T. M., was well attended, there being nine tables of players present. The first prizes were won by C. Perkins and Florence Hammond, and the second were won by Miss Nellie Blanchard and Iva Poore.

The last dance before Lent will be held Tuesday evening, March 3, at Knight's of Columbus hall under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians base ball team. Music will be furnished by the Montpelier band orchestra and the tickets will be 25 cents each.

The price of admission to the art loan exhibit will be only ten cents, so that all may come. It is hoped that the occasion may be partly of a social nature and the parlor will be used for that purpose. Lunches of sandwiches, cake, coffee or chocolate will be served for 10 cents additional. Remember the dates, March 3 and 4.

The chemical engine was called out at 9:30 this morning by telephone to the stone shed of C. W. McMillan & Son. Sparks from the chimney had set fire to the shingles and the flames were blazing up considerably when the firemen arrived. It was quickly extinguished by the chemical and by buckets of water, and but slight damage was done.

About 40 of the friends of Miss Beatrice Mann gathered at her home at 58 Hill street last evening and gave her a surprise party, the occasion being the celebration of her 10th birthday. Miss Ena Addie, in behalf of the company, presented Miss Beatrice a handsome silver ring, and from her parents and grandmother she received two beautiful silver spoons. Refreshments were served, after which games were played. When the party broke up at a late hour, each having spent a pleasant evening, all wished their young hostess many happy returns of the day.

WEBSTERVILLE.

Miss Session will speak in the Baptist church at Websterville Sunday at 10:30 in the morning and 7 o'clock in the evening.
